

Saint Peter's University/Caulfield School of Education
Doctor of Education (Ed.D.)
Educational Leadership — K-12

Name _____

The Doctor of Education Program (Ed.D.), with a concentration in Educational Leadership — K-12, prepares current district and school administrators, educational leaders, and classroom teachers to take on district leadership roles in K through 12th grade settings.

	Expected Date Of Completion	Date Of Completion	Credits
GE801 Curriculum Development and Instruction			3
GE803 School Policy Analysis			3
GE805 or GE810 Organizational Behavior and Educational Administration. Leading Org. Change in K-12 Education.			3
GE806 or GE881 Development of Inclusive and Equitable K-12 Leaders. Advanced Independent Study.			3
GE807 Statistics I			3
GE809 Research Design and Methods			3
GE811 Qualitative Research Design			3
GE812 or GE841 Universally Designed Organizations: Strategic Planning for DEI. Selected Topics in Educational Administration in Elementary and Secondary Schools.			3
GE824 Innovative Strategies in Educational Administration			3
GE825 Ethical Foundations and Social Responsibility			3
GE826 Analysis and Interpretation of Assessment Data			3
GE829 Technology to Improve Curriculum Design			3
GE831 Accountability: Resource Allocation and Financial Challenges			3
GE833 Emerging Legal and Moral Issues Facing Executive School Administrators			3
GE835 Personnel Administration and Public Sector Bargaining			3
GE839 Statistics II			3
GE871 Dissertation Seminar I			3
GE873 Dissertation Seminar			3
GE890 Dissertation Advisement each semester after all course work is completed and until dissertation is successfully defended. Students will enroll in the one-credit Dissertation Advisement for 4 semesters. After that, if the dissertation is not completed, they must enroll in the three-credit Dissertation Advisement course, until the dissertation is completed.			1 or 3

Program Total: 54 Credits

Advisor: _____ Student: _____

Date: _____ Date: _____